FOREWORD

Between September and May your concept of this school year has changed, in all probability, from anticipation of nine long months on the calendar to a quick retrospection of fleeting days crowded with memories. Some of these memories will linger in your hearts forever . . . your first accepted "D-X" . . . your feeling of oneness with your college as you cheered your team on to victory . . . the box from home on your birthday . . . the hallowed beauty of morning sunlight through the chapel windows . . .

It is for the sake of reminiscence that we place in your hands the 1940 "Tattler," a written and pictorial record of your experiences this year on the "old hill" . . . So turn the pages and remember . . .

"She stands there, sir! In the heart of the campus! You can see for yourself that she is the center of all activity. Look at her now. She has been through another battle!"

Indeed she had, and now her broken window-lights gave her a roguish, mischevious air. To the ordinary passerby she would appear wronged and neglected, but to those who knew her, she seemed just to be resting herself for fresh conflicts.

Jewell Hall, as she is known, has faced battles by the score. She is, however, on a firm foundation, so she can laugh at the high winds and raging storms. When the contractor and his men were digging the foundation, Dr. William Jewell (for whom the Hall was named) insisted that the building should be laid not on shale, but on bed rock, so down to bed rock the men dug.

From her superior position since 1853 Jewell Hall has watched the years roll by. During the Civil War her doors were open for the wounded soldiers who were carried in from the southern army. She still carries in her side some shell wounds inflicted at that early age.

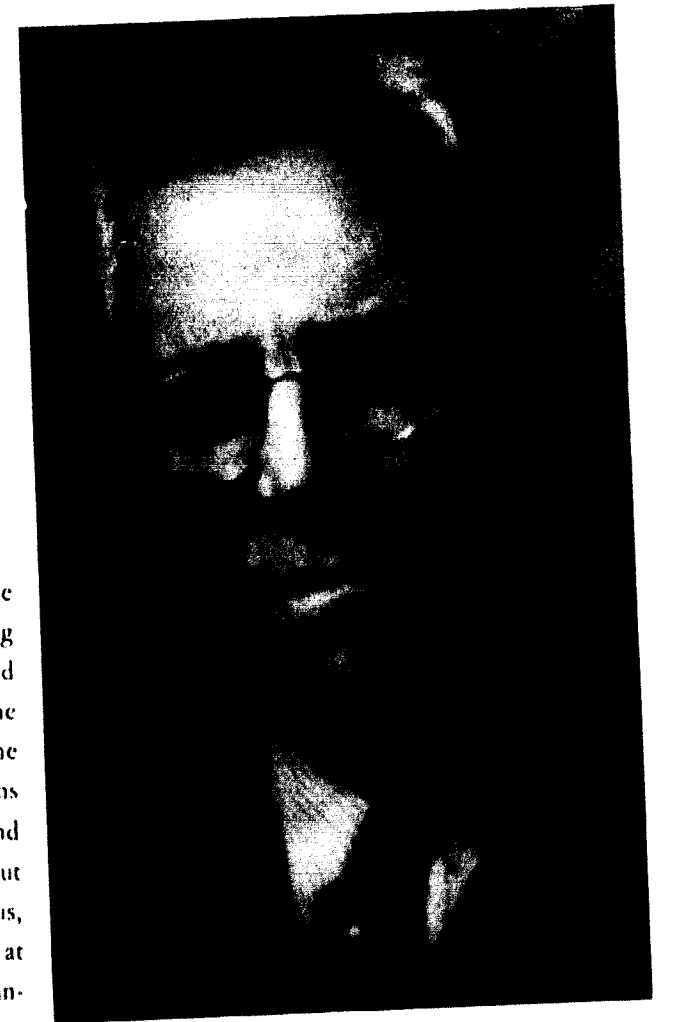

Having served once as the main building for the college and academy, housing also the library and dormitory quarters, she has now become merely a class building. The rooms now used by Professors Isley and Sullivan were formerly one large room used as the school chapel. Early one morning the boys coaxed and cajoled a donkey into the chapel room and tied him to the pulpit. When chapel convened, there stood the donkey wholly at ease in his new environment. Dr. Emerson rose and said calmly, "I think there are enough donkeys in this school without dragging in another one!"

Jewell Hall has seen the library grow too large for her shelter, the science departments spread into a building larger than she is herself, the chapel and administration offices into a building of their own, the boys (of both high school and college age) moving into Old Ely and later into New Ely. She has seen the growth of high schools in every city taking another function from under her wing. She has seen the girls come to the hill, timidly at first, but later in beves and droves. They have even tried to usurp her place as queen of the campus, but that is impossible.

At evening with her sight restored and her wounds hidden by friendly shadows, or in the summer when the air is dry and still and the heavy woodbine crawls over her walls, or in the winter when ice frames her and clings to every window sill, she is the reigning queen of the campus. . . telling no secrets but listening with sympathetic ear to the problems of those about her. . . stately, proud, dignified, a lady of culture. . . or a good sport. She belongs to no particular year. She belongs to no particular organization. She is a timeless queen, the favorite of all.

The President's Message

John F. Herget, A. M., LL. D.
President of the College

6-27-40

"This year marks the 91st anniversary of the founding of William Jewell College. During these decades the College has had many ups and downs. It was barely learning to walk when the Civil War interrupted its work. Since that time other wars, severe drouths, financial depressions and pestilences have plagued the nation and have challenged the very life of the College. But through all these trials God has been with us, and the school has made gradual and steady, if at times very slow, progress. Even during the unparalleled depression of the last ten years we have materially increased our endowment, our equipment and facilities and the number of students.

During these nine decades of its existence the College has sent out its alumni into every worthy field of human endeavor, and by their achievements they have reflected honor on their Alma Mater. Seventy-five of them now living have been accorded recognition in Who's Who in America.

From the beginning we have sought to build a Liberal Arts College, Christian in its faith, teaching, and ideals of life and conduct.

The president desires to express to the members of the present student body his sincere appreciation of their fine spirit of cooperation in maintaining these ideals of the College, and of their academic and extra-curricular achievements by which they have brought to it added honor and distinction."

A Word From the Dean

"To many young men and women now in college, the future may at times seem shrouded in gloom and uncertainty. Let me advise all such to be of good cheer. If your college days are kept busy in the performance of each day's tasks, if you are conscientious and loyal to your teachers, to your fellow students and to your daily assignments, someday the future will reward you. It may not be in money or political or social preferment. Life's greatest rewards come from a sense of one's having done his best. If you are faithful and courageous, sometime you will reach the glorious heights. Before you will lie the delectable mountains and the beautiful boulevards. Out there in the distant years you will most surely find full recompense for all your trials."

Jewell's Women

Clad in the prevailing fashions of the day, and typifying the ideal of young womanhood in pursuit of knowledge, thirty-three girls found themselves at the beginning of the post-war era enrolled in a college hitherto admitting only young men. During the successive years the doors of the college have swung wider granting entrance to an ever increasing number of "co-eds." In the past two decades the feminine constituency has grown from eleven per cent in 1920 to twenty-eight per cent in 1940.

Jewell women play an integral part in campus life. They share honors and membership in organizations with the college men, and contribute to the work of the college.

Dean Ruth Lindsey has served in an advisory capacity for the past four years, showing ready sympathy and understanding in all problems.

Ruth Lindsey, A. M.
Dean of Women

"As you leave the campus this year, whether as a Senior or as one who will return next year, I hope you carry with you no regrets. Forget, if you can, the mistakes and failures, the difficulties and disappointments. Remember only the joys, achievements, victories, and close friendships. I hope you will feel that, in addition to the accumulation of worthwhile facts, your outlook on life has been broadened, your interests increased, your initiative and self-control developed, your circle of friends enlarged; and that you are enabled to take your place in the world with greater efficiency. I further hope that each succeeding year may be filled with high purposes and thorough preparation so that success may be written on every page of your record."

the silent influence of books . . .

The Library

Jewell students look with pride on their own Carnegie library, and extensively use its 45,000 classified and catalogued volumes as well as the 212 regularly received periodicals. The spacious reading room (separated into boys' and girls' reading rooms for study purposes) is well filled during all school sessions.

One of the most interesting volumes in the library is Dr. William Jewell's family Bible, containing his family records. The library also houses several noteworthy collections. The Spurgeon library of Puritan theological literature contains a 1573 edition of the famous "Breeches Bible." The Louis B. Mertins collection of holographs was presented by the California poet in honor of "Daddy" Fruit. This collection contains autographed and first editions and is being continually augmented. The Ted Malone collection of American Poetry is composed of many unpublished manuscripts as well as several hundred books of poetry. This alumnus presented the collection "as a Valentine to his college in honor of his wife." The Hubmaier collection was given by Dr. W. O. Lewis, Secretary of the Baptist World Alliance, and has been translated into English by Dr. George D. Davidson, Head of the Modern Language Department. It is the only complete collection of photographs of Hubmaier's pamphlets in the world.

Miss Opal Carlin serves in the capacity of Librarian, and Miss Louise Schmitt is her assistant. Twenty-five students receiving employment in the library comprise the library staff.

The picture at the right presents an unusual study of the library and famed oak tree silhouetted against a flaming background of the setting sun.

Throughout the twenty-six years of its existence, located first in the lower section of the library as a small bindery, and now occupying the ground floor of the chapel building, the William Jewell Press has consistently upheld the highest standards of printing. Progressing steadily from its early days when one student was employed under the direction of Prof. Ward Edwards, the Press under the management of George C. Beamer now employs twenty students who earn part of their college expenses in typesetting, composing, and running the presses.

The Press prints all college publications—the Student, the Tattler, the College Catalog, and all official college bulletins—as well as engaging in extensive commercial printing. Facilities for photoengraving and photography have recently proved an invaluable addition to the equipment of the Press.

Manager George Beamer has served as such since 1936, having been assistant manager for six years after his graduation from Jewell. Mr. Beamer's eighteen years of experience as a printer as well as his advanced study of abnormal psychology combine well to equip him for his post as manager.

Melrose Hall, Jewell's dormitory for women, is a well-planned building located on a high hill overlooking the town, and housing a gracious reception room and capacity for sixty-five girls. Dr. and Mrs. Hester have for the past thirteen years provided a homelike atmosphere as supervisors of the Hall.

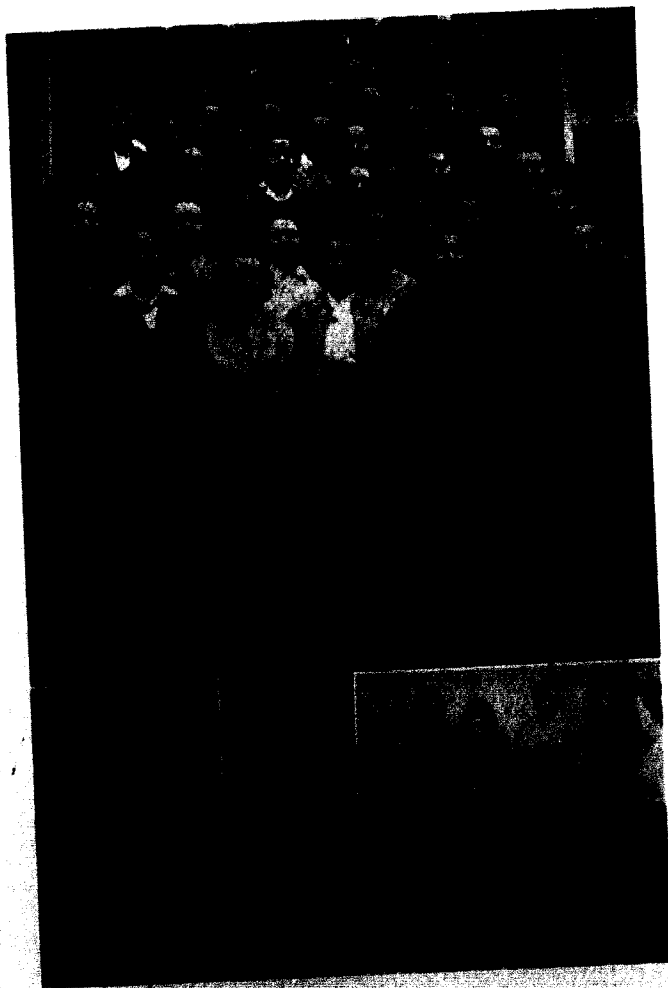

Various social functions are held throughout the year, either alone or in cooperation with New Ely Hall, such as picnics, formal dinners, and an open-house.

New Ely Hall, Jewell's residence hall for men, accomodates over a hundred college students. Wholly masculine in nature, the building houses an attractive lobby which serves as a recreation center and reception room. A private dining hall has been the scene of many Jewell functions and official banquets.

Activities of the year included weekly guest nights, at which time distinguished visitors were present for the evening meal. The chess club met regularly in the lobby, and guests enjoyed many evenings of games before the large fireplaces.

New Ely was awarded third prize for its float in the Homecoming Parade last fall, and participated in the Tattler Revue by presenting a skit entitled God Bless America.

The Co-op Book Store

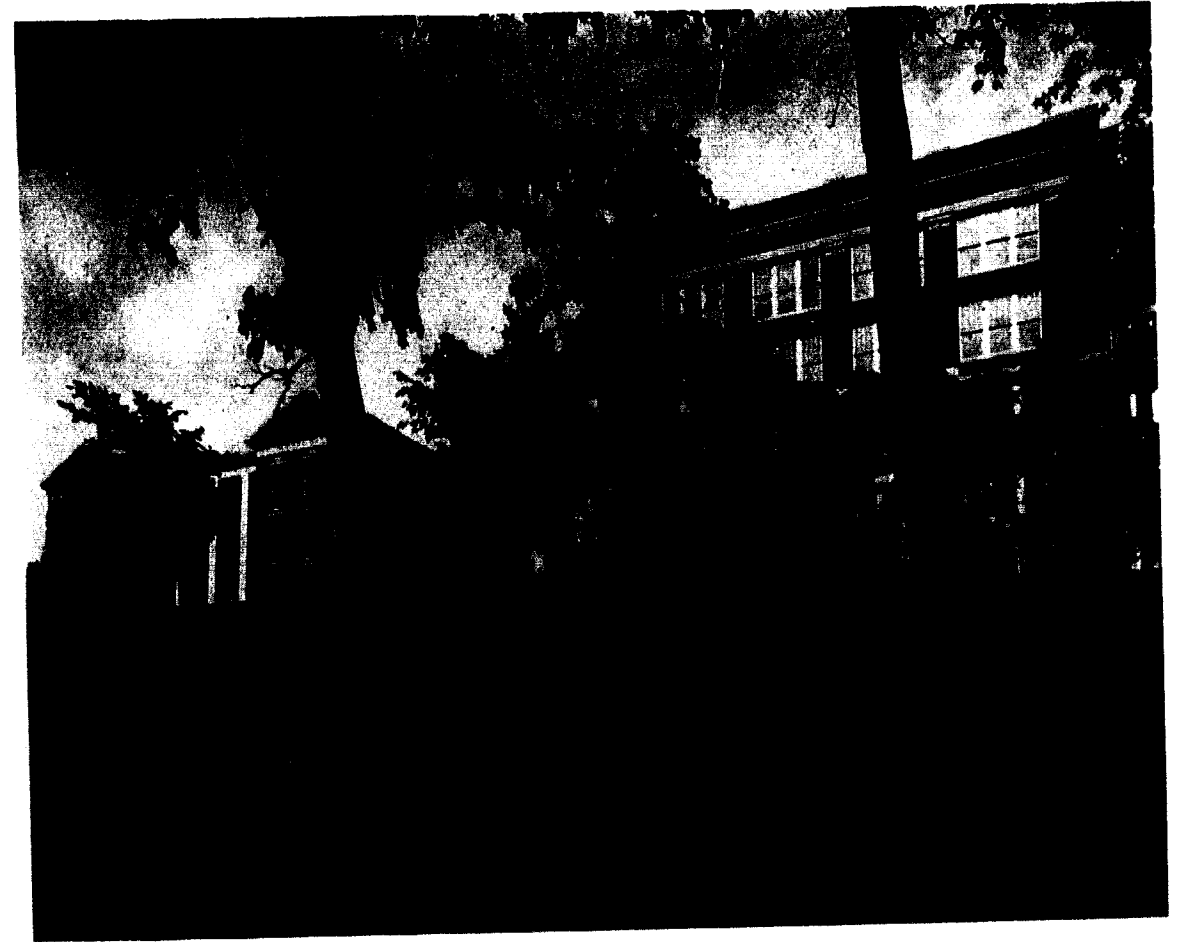

The Cooperative Book Store was established in 1917 providing for student management with faculty supervision. It existed then as now to furnish students with necessary supplies at established prices and to carry on a campus improvement campaign with the earnings. Recent contributions from the Co-op have been the building of the greenhouse, many evergreen plantings about the campus, and improvements on the track.

The manager for the past year has been Carl Kenagy. Clerks have been Will Wyant, Lawrence Shoemaker, Earl Lee, Fred Farris, Gordon Gilbert, Joe Roberts, and Bill Campbell.

During the past two years a program of modernization has been begun so that it is now one of the best college book stores in this territory.

Football

To go into the individual exploits of the William Jewell Cardinals for the last season would be only to reiterate what Tatler readers already know. For the first time in the three years of coaching by Henri Godfriaux the Red team did not bag a championship.

The forty-man squad played three games before starting its conference schedule. They first trimmed Fort Scott in a game ending 14-0. After leading 13-0 at half-time the Cards dropped a game to the powerful Rockhurst Hawks, 18-13. Ottawa took a close game from Jewell the next week by a 20-13 score.

The annual "battle of coaches" opened the conference playing at Missouri Valley. Scoring after seven minutes in the first quarter the Cardinals out-pointed the Vikings with a margin of 6-0. A pass from Gunner Farris to Bobby Moore scored the lone touchdown.

A bit overconfident, perhaps, the team went northward to Tarkio where the Owls surprised everyone with a 12-6 victory. Scarborough scored Jewell's touchdown.

Out-gaining Baker by some 50 yards the Cards, nevertheless, lost by a lopsided 19-6 score. Roberts was the outstanding player of the game, gaining 100 yards himself.

Culver-Stockton, eyes set on ruining a Jewell Home-coming, barely eked out a 7-6 victory by scoring on a long pass. A pass from Moore to Roberts turned Jewell's scoring trick.

In the season finale the Cardinals ruffled their feathers and securely trounced the Central Eagles to the tune of 20-0. Captain Goss, Don Farris, and Bobby Moore played their final games for William Jewell.

Post-season all-conference selections included Elmer Goss at tackle and Bud Anderson at half-back. Bob Williams was placed on the second team.

Basketball

The William Jewell Cardinals just couldn't get going very often throughout the basketball season this year and ended the season rather low in the conference standings. However, they did give some of the higher ranking teams a good case of the jitters now and then. For the first time in four years R. E. (Dad) Bowles took over the coaching job and guided the boys through the season.

One headline proved to be a consistently useful one after almost every game, "Roberts leads scorers." At the end of the season, newspaperman Parke Carroll placed Roberts on his all-conference team in preference to Hobart Lewis, tall center of the National Intercollegiate Champions, the Tarkio Owls.

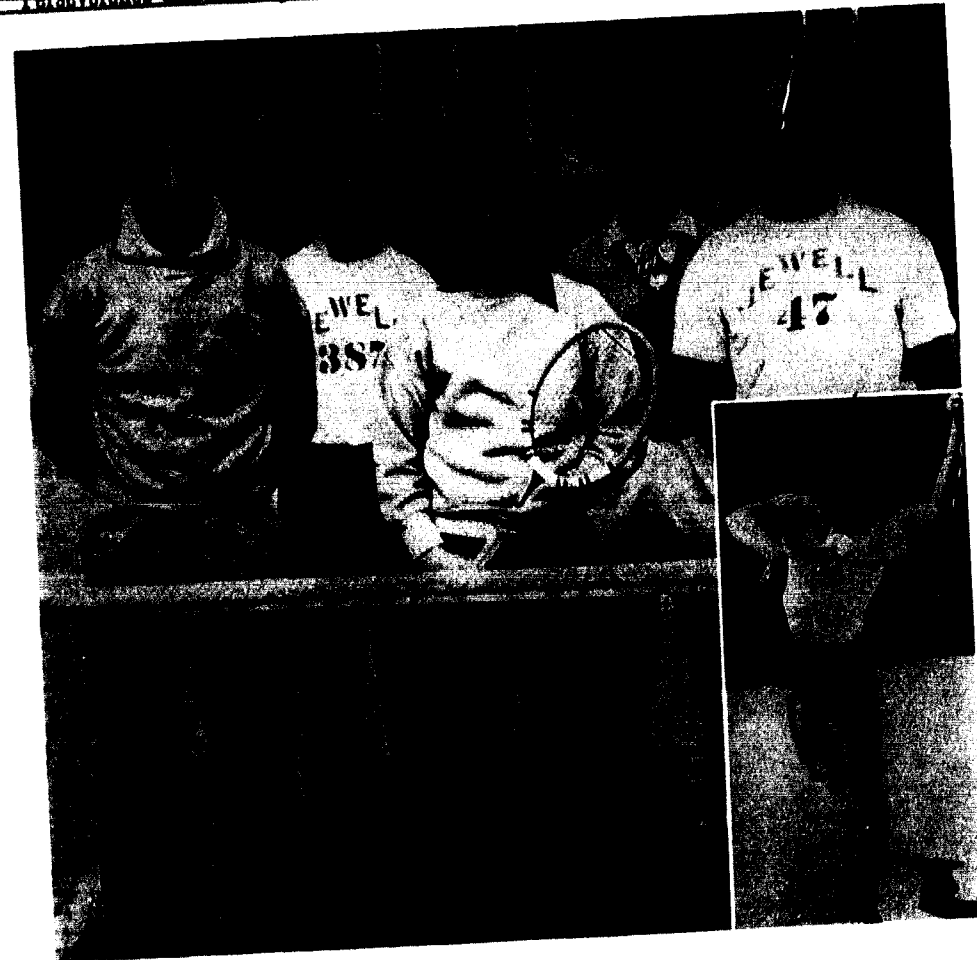

Non-conference games were won against Rockhurst. The conference opener was lost to Central, 36-30. Culver-Stockton out-pointed the Cards in a 32-25 game. Then the Tarkio Owls coasted to a 42-19 victory. A pleasant diversion came when the Red team laced Missouri Valley, 38-35. This loss prevented the Vikings from ranking next to the top. On a road trip the team then lost to Drury and Westminster. Immediately following this, Westminster came to Brown gymnasium and received quite a surprise, the Cards winning by a 38-31 margin. Subsequent losses to Valley and Tarkio ended the season.

In the Parke Carroll all-star selection Captain Don Farris received honorable mention. His steady ball playing, which makes him a star, kept the Cardinals under control even in losing.

Next year's captain will be Bland Roberts, the choice of the returning players.

Jewell's five-man tennis team, captained by George (Sonny) Brown, was held back by several factors this year, but in spite of these things it turned in a good brand of tennis against many stronger opponents.

Playing on the team besides Captain Brown were Ellis Gover, number two man on the team, Kenny Davis, Clyde Guenther, and Bob Grayson. Teaming up to compete in doubles competition were Brown and Gover.

By means of a rating of the players and by a series of challenge matches the tennis team was chosen. Anyone could advance who could defeat the person ranked just above him. Thus the team was composed of the best players on the Hill.

Wherever the track team went the courtmen followed, playing matches against the following schools of the conference; Tarkio, Central, and Missouri Valley. They also played matches with Maryville State Teachers College and Kansas City (Kansas) Junior College.

"The runners are treading upon each other's heels . . . Wee be unto him who stops to tie his shoestrings!" Carlyle

Track

With about twenty-five men reporting to Dad Bowles at the beginning of the track season, the William Jewell Cardinals opened their competition with a dual meet with Maryville State Teachers College. Several dual meets with conference opponents followed this meet. The red-clad cindermen failed to show much in the way of team strength against any of these opponents.

In spite of this team weakness, the individual results were quite different. The team developed several stars and showed some of the last year's stalwarts. Listed among the recruits was Howard Wilcox, a quarter-miler of some repute. One of the smoothest dash men to be seen on any team this season was Terrell Scarborough. His smooth running was beautiful to watch. Bud Anderson, another first year man, showed up nicely in the high jump, the broad jump, and in the dashes. He won several points for Dad and the team. Don Farris was one of the veterans whose spirit and ability did wonders for the team. Bland Roberts was hampered by a game leg muscle most of the season and seldom got started in the sprint events. However, his performance in the field events gained more points for Jewell than any other man. Always a competitor in the high jump, he won points in that event. He ranked at the top in both the discus and the shot put. At the time of this writing he is undefeated for the season in both of these events.

Although the team didn't go far this year, it did offer to the squad good training, training physically and training in sportmanship.

"Here rose an athlete, strong enough to break or bind all force in bonds that might endure." Tennyson

"J" Club

When any athlete first comes to college one of his first thoughts about athletics is concerning the award given for participating in athletics. At William Jewell the award is a letter and the sweater. The beautiful red sweater with a black "J" upon it is a token which any athlete is proud to wear.

The College athletic committee has a definite set of rules which govern the awarding of these letters. In football and basketball a player must play a required number of minutes. This makes eligible for consideration. In track a man must acquire a certain number of points in one meet. In tennis one must win one match to gain this eligibility. However, there is yet more to getting a letter. The player must pass the board of control. He must have maintained an attitude worthy of honor. If his attitude has been "all wrong" he is not awarded the letter and sweater. That is why wearing the red sweater with the black "J" means so much to a man, and why a man who wears it is admired by his associates and acquaintances.

The "J" Club is made up of those who have gained letters here at William Jewell. Its members are leaders in athletics. It does much to promote a good attitude upon the part of team members. It upholds the tradition of William Jewell—it upholds the place of William Jewell in intercollegiate athletics.

Forensics

Forensic activity on the William Jewell campus this year has bubbled and boiled enthusiastically. It has not only fired the forensic squad with a new pep but it has also created a genuine interest in forensics on the part of the student body. Old students (who last year felt that Breckenridge and Winger, chosen America's international debate team, had skyrocketed William Jewell to the pinnacle of forensic achievement) willingly admitted that the 1940 squad had something to be proud of when this year's schedules were announced. New students marveled at the doings of P. Caspar Harvey and his five varsity debaters.

Overshadowed by the stellar achievements of the traveling quintet were the splendid debates participated in by the other varsity men and women. Chosen from forty-three candidates early in September by Debate Coach Amery, the forensic squad was set to work immediately on the national Pi Kappa Delta question: Resolved that the United States should adopt a policy of strict isolation in regard to all nations outside the western hemisphere engaged in civil or international conflict. Practice debates, pitting squad members against squad members, pairing teammates against teammates, and squad discussions sent William Jewell debaters victorious through the Kirksville tournament, with the Cardinal debaters dropping only two debates in fifteen encounters.

The Pittsburg tournament again saw Jewell debaters turn back varsity teams from four states to return to the campus with a record of ten victories in the contest. Teams journeyed to Marshall to debate Missouri Valley College, and these same teams were host to debaters from Kansas City, Kansas, Junior College, as well as to numerous other college teams.

Sixteen varsity debaters gave William Jewell 138 intercollegiate debates for the 1939-40 season—the largest number of debates in any season in the debate history of William Jewell. Eleven debaters from the varsity squad—Adams, Campbell, Grassick, Kenagy, Kugler, Martin, Parrott, Ragland, A. Rendlen, C. Rendlen, and Sidlinger—won over seventy-five per cent of their decision debates for the season.

The varsity debate squad for 1940, not including the traveling teams, was:

David Bratcher . . . Morganfield, Ky.
Earl E. Brock . . . New York City
Nancy Campbell . . . Lexington
Carl Kenagy . . . Raytown
Betty Kugler . . . Gorin
Arthur Martin . . . St. Louis
Gene Moore . . . Kansas City
Maurice O'Connell . . . Hartford, Conn.
Albert Rendlen . . . Hannibal
Charles Rendlen . . . Hannibal
Warren Turner . . . Greybull, Wyo.

The traveling teams included:

Madeline Parrott . . . Rapid City, S. D.
Audrey Adams . . . Lexington
Harry Grassick . . . Topeka, Kans.
Edwin Ragland . . . Lexington
William Sidlinger . . . Hutchinson, Kans.

The men's team, Sidlinger, Ragland, and Grassick, traveled in thirteen states, represented William Jewell in the men's division of the Pacific States Tournament at Redlands, California, and tangled with the crack teams of various state universities and colleges along the circuitous route which took them seven thousand miles through the United States and Canada.

The women's traveling team, composed of Miss Parrott and Miss Adams, set out on March 5 for Seattle—embarking on an eleven-thousand mile trip which took them from California to Massachusetts, from Mexico to Montreal, and back to a waiting campus on April 10, five weeks later—the longest debate trip ever made by a women's team in the history of American debating. Accompanied by P. Caspar Harvey, the girls were joined at the tournament in California by the men's team. The debating quintet and Mr. Harvey were guests of Hubert Eaton at his home in Glendale, California, and of Mary Pickford and Eddie Cantor in their Hollywood homes. They were entertained by Earl Carroll at his famous Restaurant where they were photographed with Joe E. Brown and numerous other moving-picture celebrities. The girls had dinner at Antoine's in New Orleans, crossed south of the border into Mexico, meandered up through the nation's capital to New York where "Speaking against time has become one of the fine arts." Sumner they climbed the Statue of Liberty, journeyed to Boston to debate Boston University, crossed the Canadian line for a glimpse of Montreal, and looped back through Detroit to Missouri. Guests of many prominent alumni along the way, Miss Adams and Miss Parrott were honored guests at alumni dinners in Washington, New York, and St. Louis. They were interviewed and photographed by newspaper reporters in every city they visited, and were literally swamped in Los Angeles and in Boston by an enthusiastic press.

In New York Miss Parrott and Miss Adams were given the honor of talking over the Blue network of the National Broadcasting Company from station WJZ, and were heard throughout the United States. The picture which accompanies this article was taken at the time of the broadcast.

Miss Audrey Adams won second place as an orator in the Pacific Coast Tournament, which was the highest recognition any member of the squad attained during the year.

Student Senate

The Student Senate, Jewell's form of student government, is the official link between the student body and the administration of the college. It is the official representative of the student body in all matters that pertain to the student body as a whole.

No measure can be brought before the faculty and administration for consideration except through the Senate. The Senate controls all student body elections and sponsors generally all student activities at large.

Members of the Student Senate during 1939-40 were:

President of the Student Body

Wiley Thorne, Chairman
(ex-officio)

President of the Senior Class

Gene Hollmann

Vice-President of the Senior Class

H. Arnold Smith

President of the Junior Class

Wellington Westbrook

Vice-President of the Junior Class

Charles Goodson

President of the Sophomore Class

Louis Dessert

President of the Freshman Class

Aeons

The outstanding senior men of the year are known as Aeons. Membership in this honorary organization is one of the greatest achievements a senior man can attain. Working quietly and inobtrusively, their service to the college is immeasurable.

Aeons during the past year have been:

- H. Arnold Smith
- Carl Hunker
- Eugene Hollmann
- James Harris
- Wiley Thorne

Panaegis

Bearing the name "Panaegis" and with the emblem of a Greek woman as symbol, five senior girls compose this honorary organization, which has as its purpose the furthering of the best interests of William Jewell women. Miss Ruth Lindsey and Miss Virginia D. Rice have been the faculty sponsors.

The members were:
Ann Margaret Bell
Patty Lee Brandom
Nadine Sanders

Beta Lambda is an honorary biology club for girls. Organized in 1927 at William Jewell, it is made up of girls interested in biology. Four terms of biology with a high scholastic rating and a desire for further biological study are required for membership in the organization. Beta Lambda is a member of the Missouri Academy of Science.

The officers and members for 1939-40 were: President, Bessie Burkhardt; Vice-President, Syrena Tucker; Secretary-Treasurer, Nadine Sanders; Faculty Sponsors, Miss Olive Thomas, Dr. C. J. Elmore; Madeline Parrott, Nancy Ramirez, Katherine Summers, Betty Sumpter.

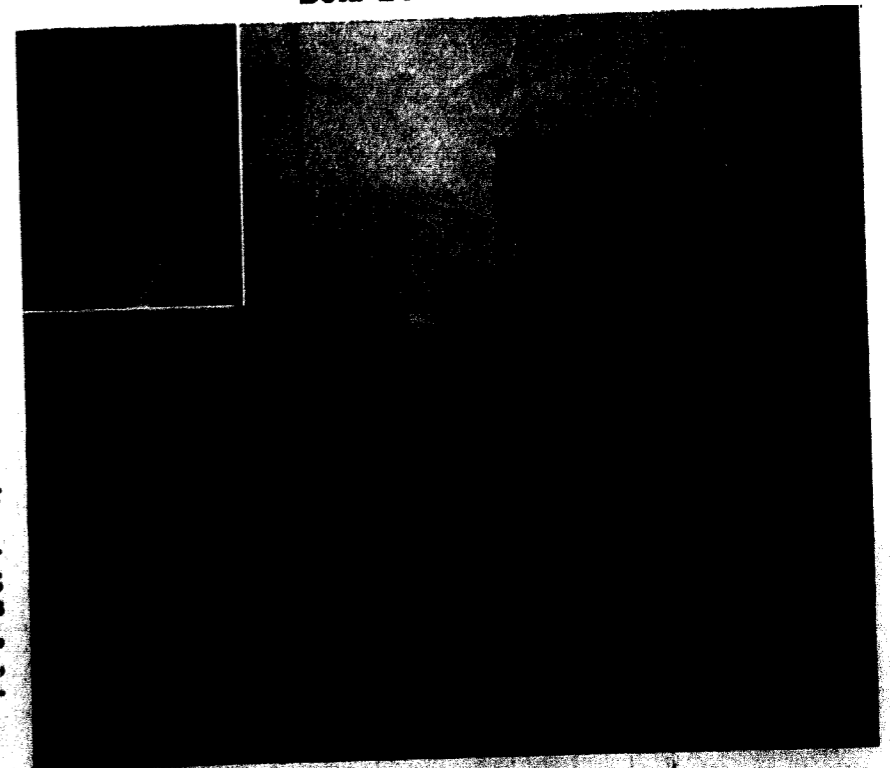

Beta Lambda

Beta Beta Beta

The men's biology club, organized in 1924, became the Lambda chapter of Beta Beta Beta, national biology fraternity, in 1927. In 1934 the organization was adapted to meet the qualifications of the Missouri Academy of Science. A candidate for membership must have a high scholastic standing in biology and an earnest desire for further biological investigation.

Officers and members for 1939-40 were: President, James Ragan; Secretary-Treasurer, Wendell Rainwater; Faculty Sponsor, Prof. James Smith; Kenneth Duncan, Paul Hagan, James Harris, Wiley Thorne, Howard Wilcox.

Sigma Pi Sigma

Sigma Pi Sigma, a national honorary physics society, was founded in 1921 by a group of students and professors of physics. The group expanded to a national organization, and in 1930 it was brought to the campus of William Jewell. Since that time Sigma Pi Sigma has been an active organization, the present membership being the largest number that the William Jewell chapter has had.

It is the purpose of Sigma Pi Sigma to stimulate in interested students a desire for more accurate information concerning nature's machines, and to assist in training them to be more comprehensive observers of nature's phenomena.

The activities of the organization consist of field trips to nearby points of interest, and both open and closed meetings, at which time talks are given either by members of the group or by guest speakers. The year's activities are closed each year by a picnic.

Theta Chi Delta

Theta Chi Delta is an honorary chemical fraternity, the purpose of which is to promote the continued study of chemistry. It is composed of under-graduate and graduate students with a major or minor in chemistry. Entrance requirements are five terms of chemistry with a "B" average.

The organization was formerly local, being called the "Khem Club," and became affiliated with the national organization in 1931 when Alpha Nu chapter was installed on the campus.

At the bi-monthly meetings talks are given by the members on related subjects.

Alpha Nu chapter sent Glen Adams as its official delegate to the eighth Biennial Convention, meeting in April in Carthage, Illinois.

Sigma Tau Delta

Sigma Tau Delta, honorary creative writing fraternity, presented as the crowning achievement of the year's work a publication of literary contributions by members of Mu Beta Chapter on the campus. This anthology was appropriately entitled, A Man's Reach, and a quotation from Browning's Andrea Del Sarto was the inspiration. Contained within were selections in the following groupings: Expressions of Worship, Life, Nature, War, Love, and Humor.

The significance of the publication can best be stated by a quotation from the preface: "In this thin volume Sigma Tau Delta has tried to give you the best thoughts of youth groping for expression, reaching toward the white flame of creative genius."

Sigma Tau Delta meets regularly to discuss literary topics and analyze the manuscripts of its members. Eleven new members were initiated during the year.

In April the organization sponsored a musicale featuring the Jubilee Singers, who presented a variety of negro spirituals and popular numbers. Proceeds from this enterprise went to the fund for the publication of the anthology and to benefit the singers.

Pi Kappa Delta

Jewell's chapter of Pi Kappa Delta, national honorary forensics fraternity, has achieved for its members widespread fame this year. At the present time there are fifteen students and five faculty in Jewell's chapter who are entitled to wear Pi Kappa Delta keys.

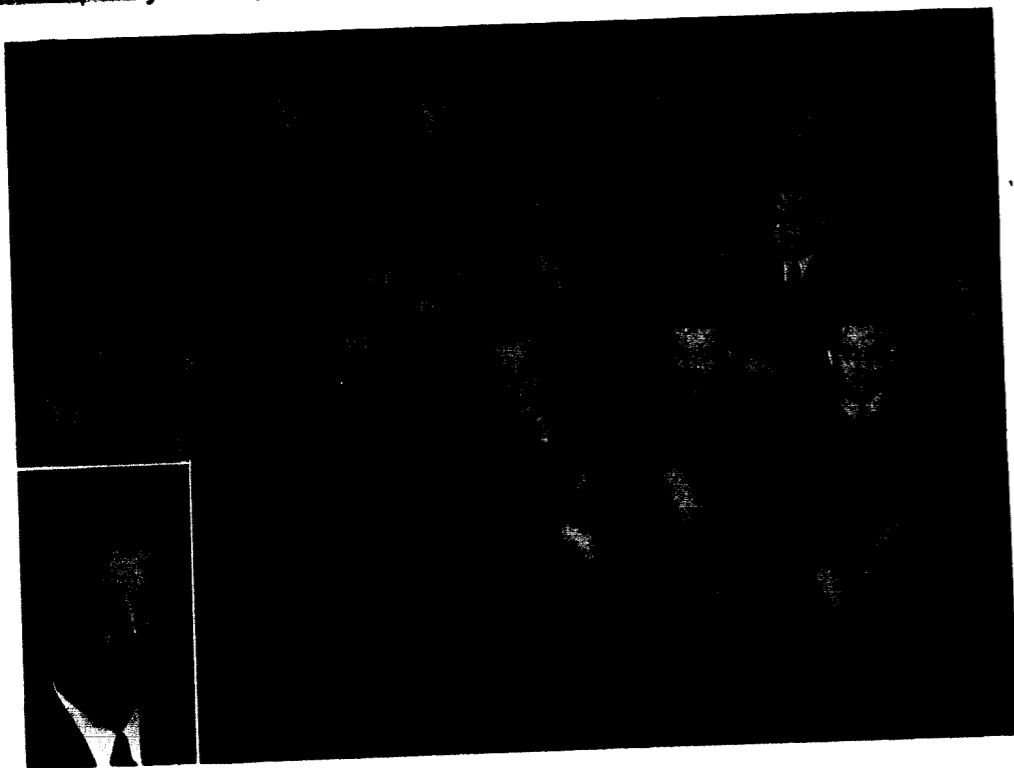

The purpose of the organization is to stimulate progress in, and to promote the interests of intercollegiate oratory, debate and public speaking by encouraging a spirit of intercollegiate fellowship, of brotherly cooperation and interest, and by conferring upon deserving candidates badges varied and graduated according to merit and achievement. Badges are awarded in the degrees of Fraternity, Proficiency, Honor, and Special Distinction. The three orders in which one may receive a degree are Debate, Oratory, and Instruction.

The highest award is the diamond key of Special Distinction. Madeline Parrott is the only student who may wear the diamond key for distinguished forensic achievement. Prof. Joe S. Amery is the third man in the history of the college to be entitled to the two-diamond award.

A list of the members appears opposite, with the degree and order of each member:

Alpha Phi Omega

Alpha Phi Omega is a National Service Fraternity composed of young men who have had Boy Scout training. The purpose of A.P.O. is to assemble college men in the fellowship of the Scout Oath and Law, to develop friendship and to promote service to humanity. The four major fields of service are: to the student body and faculty; to youth and community; to members of the Fraternity; and to the nation as participating citizens.

Alpha Phi Omega was founded at Lafayette College in 1925. It is the only National Service Fraternity in existence and it has grown more swiftly since its founding than any other organization bearing a Greek letter name.

Alpha Mu Chapter which is located at William Jewell was founded December 28, 1934 by Judge E. E. Kirkland of Liberty. Alpha Mu has followed the fraternity's expansion program by increasing its chapter roll by 250 percent during the past school year. Among the services rendered by this chapter to the college were the cleaning of the swimming pool, raising and lowering of the flag, and placing of name-plates on the pictures of Jewell's immortals in the Gymnasium.

Alpha Psi Omega

Alpha Psi Omega, a national honorary dramatics fraternity, has been an active participant in Jewell life since 1932, when Beta Pi Cast was installed on the campus. The organization encourages and honors students who do outstanding work in the arts of acting and stage technique.

The purpose of the Beta Pi Cast of Alpha Psi Omega is to stimulate interest in dramatic activities in William Jewell, to secure for the college all the advantages, and mutual helpfulness provided by the means of electing students to membership, and to serve as a reward for their worthy efforts in participating in the plays staged by the dramatic organizations of the college.

The "Tatler"

The Tatler, William Jewell's annual, is published each year by members of the Junior Class. According to an amendment to the Constitution, passed this year, the Editor and Business Manager are chosen from a Sophomore Board of the previous year, and thus have had experience in the mechanics of the yearbook.

The 1940 Tatler was born May 5, 1939, at the annual spring election. During the summer it grew and developed and had achieved a good start when school opened in the fall. Due in great measure to the kind of interest which the student body took in its nurture, it slowly gained strength during the winter months. With the coming of spring, it gained new life and blossomed quickly under the care of its many patrons. Thus with mingled feelings of pride and hesitation we now present the 1940 Tatler, product of the efforts of the Junior Class of William Jewell College.

The staff of the Tatler wishes to express its deep appreciation of the unfailing interest and help so willingly given by Mr. George Beamer and the individuals of the Press, by the advisors from Burger-Baird Engravers, and, especially, by the student body as a whole. For your constant cooperation we thank you.

Kappa Asma Sigma

A quarrel: and then friendship. That was the beginning of Kappa Asma Sigma.

In the fall of 1931 when Loren Goings dipped the ice cream for the waiters in New Ely Hall there occurred a little misunderstanding between John Timcoff and Wally Hilton in regard to who was to be served first. Loren took sides with John and as a result Wally was nabbed by these two as he passed the dish-washing room on his way to the kitchen. A large coal shovel was near at hand and made a very good paddle for these two, as each took turns at paddling the victim. As this "horse-play" ended all three shook hands and John shouted the words, "Kappa Asma Sigma." Thus was born the kitchen fraternity of Kappa Asma Sigma. The boys who were members of the kitchen force at that time felt the need of closer harmony among themselves, and on November 18, 1931, met together and organized a group under the name of Kappa Asma Sigma.

This year there have been three presidents, since there was a new head-waiter each term: Ellis Gover, John Edmund, and Hap Blanchard.

As the years came on, each new member of the kitchen force was initiated into the chapter, and each year the head-waiter of the dormitory became the new president.

Since the time of its founding, Kappa Asma Sigma has been under the sponsorship of Miss Urbie Utz and Mrs. Grace Stanley, supervisors of New Ely Dining Hall.

The membership this year included:

Alpha Zeta Phi

Alpha Zeta Pi is an honorary social fraternity with this essential aim: to uphold the ideals of Christian manhood. It was founded in 1924 by a small group of students who met with the common desire of perfecting an organization that should have as its ideal the building of Christian character.

The colors of the organization are blue and white, and the flower is the lily-of-the-valley.

Each year at a spring banquet the retiring officers are honored, and the new officers installed.

The officers for 1939-40 were:

W. J. C. Christian Association

The William Jewell College Christian Association has as its purpose: to coordinate all the religious activities on our campus and to promote the religious life of the student body. It is composed of the entire student body. It is a member of the Southwest Council of Student Christian Associations.

The W. J. C. A. functions through a council consisting of the student executive committee, the president of the college and the faculty committee on religious activities, and the ministers of the local churches.

Baptist Student Union

The Baptist Student Union is the voluntary religious activities of the Baptist students of the college. It is a connecting link between the college and the local church. It represents, includes, and unifies all of the Baptist religious activity of the campus.

The great function of the B. S. U. is as follows: To guarantee an attractive, inclusive program of organized Baptist religious work on a campus; to include all Baptist students, and all Baptist religious organizations of the campus, in one coordinated program; to promote religious growth and spiritual development of students.

The general B. S. U. includes all Baptist students of the college who are voluntary members of any religious organization. All Baptist students are potential members of the general B. S. U. The Council of B. S. U. consists of those students elected to positions of leadership and special responsibility.

Outstanding among its varied activities during the past year was the work of the B. S. U. in cooperation with the Christian Association and International Relations Club, in bringing to the campus on Nov. 2 Mr. Charles Wells of New York City, world traveller and noted lecturer.

The B. S. U. Council for 1939-40 was as follows:

Ministerial Association

The Ministerial Group is a professional organization consisting of the students who are planning to enter specialized Christian service. An associate group, which meets regularly with the Ministerial Association, is composed of the young women who are preparing for definite Christian service. Since this group has an enrollment of 131, which is over 25 per cent of the student body, William Jewell has the distinction among all the liberal arts colleges of the world of having the largest Christian service band in the world in comparison to the enrollment of the student body. For a number of years Dr. H. I. Hester has acted as sponsor, and under his efficient direction the organization has provided a valuable service to its members and to the school.

The Ministerial Group was organized in 1923 and throughout the years has attempted to follow its scriptural motto, Romans 1:16; "I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ for it is the Power of God unto salvation." By means of the weekly meeting, the organization purposes to provide inspiration and to aid in the solving of professional problems of its members. It endeavors to provide a program which will develop spiritual life, which will bind the members together in wholesome fellowship, and which will encourage a well-balanced personality. For the weekly meetings speakers of note from various parts of the United States and especially from the Kansas City area were secured.

Of course, much of the leadership in the religious activities is found among the ministerial students. They have supported willingly the work of the the Baptist Student Union as well as the work of the William Jewell Christian Association both in campus activities and the off-campus activities. Ministerial students find an opportunity for service in the bi-monthly evangelistic services held at the Kansas City missions and in various other services in nearby churches and communities. Scholastic leadership in many of the classes is taken by ministerial students.

In the group there are 99 men and 32 women of whom 127 are Baptist, three are Methodist, and one is Christian. The service of William Jewell to Missouri churches and of Missouri churches to William Jewell is mutual. Without student pastors many of the smaller churches would be unable to function. In using student pastors, these churches provide a valuable opportunity for ministerial students as many students are able to gain actual experience in preaching and pastoral work by acting as pastors of quarter-time, half-time, or even full-time churches. During the year forty-six ministerial students served as pastors of churches and seventy-four churches selected William Jewell ministerial students as their pastors. Thirty of these students were in full-time work, though many of these were not serving a full-time church but several part-time churches.

International Relations Club

The International Relations Club of William Jewell College is one organization among more than one thousand of its kind, located in colleges and universities throughout the United States and and thirty-two foreign countries. It is the purpose of the members of this organization to associate themselves for analysis of existing relations between nations and critical examination of the effect of the national policies of one country upon the behavior of other countries; to arouse interest in the engrossing sport called politics; and to create within themselves a forward looking attitude toward international problems and good-will.

Pi Gamma Mu

Pi Gamma Mu is the National Social Science Honor Society, its purpose being the inculcation of the ideals of scholarship, scientific attitude, and method, and social service in relation to all problems through the study of social sciences.

The national organization was established on the campus of Southwestern College at Pittsburg, Kansas, in 1924, by students of economics. Missouri Epsilon chapter was chartered on the campus of William Jewell College in 1930.

The activities of the organization are predominantly scholastic in nature. Social and economic questions are discussed by various speakers, and the year's work is closed with an annual banquet. During the past year contact has been established with other chapters and social science departments of colleges in the surrounding territory with the intention of developing a system of symposiums and forums to be conducted among the various schools.

The organization and its sponsor, Prof. C. O. Van Dyke, was largely responsible for bringing to the campus the noted economist, Arthur C. Babson, who lectured here April 12.

Kappa Alpha

The Kappa Alpha Order was founded at Washington and Lee in 1865. General Rob't. E. Lee, our spiritual founder, is that type of leader that Kappa Alpha men strive to follow—a southern gentleman. The Alpha Delta chapter is the northernmost chapter and was founded in 1887. Its southern colonial house and its lovely house mother, Mrs. Vanlandingham, bespeak the southern hospitality which its members seek to exemplify. Last September Kappa Alpha pledged twenty-five students. During the year several others pledged, and at the present time, the chapter has thirty-eight actives.

Alpha Delta was host to the meeting of No. 1's of Hamer Province the week-end of April 21, 1940. This meeting brought Kappa Alpha's from Arkansas, Oklahoma and Missouri to the Jewell campus.

Kappa Alpha men are leaders in the various realms of extra-curricular activities on the William Jewell campus. They are prominent in sports, debate, dramatics and in the promotion of school spirit. Always noted for their versatility Kappa Alpha men are found in every field of activity.

Another first for Alpha Delta took place on April 30, 1940, when R. E. "Dad" Bowles was pledged for honorary membership. Socially, Kappa Alpha again set the pace with four formal dances this year; a "superstition dance," a Christmas dance, a winter formal, and a spring formal. Through the year the formal dances were supplemented by numerous radio parties and outings. The social season was climaxed by the annual Mother's Day Tea.

Phi Gamma Delta

Founded in the institution now known as Washington Jefferson College at Cannonsburg, Pa., on May 1, 1848, Phi Gamma Delta has joined in membership 32,000 men. On seventy-three foremost college and university campuses in the United States and Canada, Phi Gams are known by the friendly nickname, "Fijis."

Zeta Phi fraternity, the first to be established at William Jewell College, was installed here in 1871, and in 1886 became the local chapter of the National Fraternity of Phi Gamma Delta. With this advantage in having risen early to a dominant position on the campus, Zeta Phi chapter counts in its membership an imposing number of the prominent alumni of William Jewell, including at the present time seven members of the faculty and administration and fifteen of the forty-eight Jewell men in Who's Who.

The local chapter is steeped in the traditions of the college. It has initiated 534 men in the sixty-nine years of its existence. Zeta Phi has again succeeded in instilling friendship and spirit in its men and this year marked a steady progress of activity in campus life. Among her achievements were the winning of the Homecoming float award, the winning of the Interfraternity Touch Football tournament for the second consecutive year, and the winning of the Tatler Revue award. The new Study Supervisor and Tutor system proved successful this year with an improvement in scholarship for the winter term over the fall term.

Our house mother is Mrs. W. M. Westbrook, wife of the late "Shady" Westbrook, '09, prominent Jewell alumnus.

Sigma Nu

Twenty-five years after the national founding of the Sigma Nu Fraternity in 1894 at the Virginia Military Institute Beta Xi Chapter, the 43rd of ninety-six was organized on the Jewell campus. Since its inception here the chapter has brought 371 under the bond of the five arm star.

Enjoying a well-rounded program this year's chapter, the largest in many years numbering twenty-seven men, has seen its representing the fraternity in all phases of college activity.

Being a social group their program of social activities included a hay-ride, three formal dances, and a number of informal house dances. Unique decorations made all the formals gala affairs.

Interfraternity athletics brought second in football and a first in basketball to the credit of Beta Xi while a large number of the chapter's men participated in intercollegiate competition, particularly in football.

As they have for the past number of years, the Sigma Nu's had a very creditable forensic record by having the three men on the debate team which made the annual winter tour. As members of the squad other members of the chapter participated in intercollegiate debates held on this and other nearby campuses.

Beta Xi's new recreation room now almost completed gives promise of a splendid addition to the house.

As considered politically, with two student senate seats and the presidencies of various Greek letter and honorary organizations the chapter finds itself well represented.

Nationally the chapter received recognition. In the Mid-Continent Division Association meeting in Austin, Texas, Beta Xi's delegates were very pleased to learn that of the chapters there represented, such schools as Missouri University, Kansas University, University of Texas, etc., in general merit with all phases of fraternity life considered Beta Xi was second only to the chapter from the University of Texas, which is a school of 12,000. Scholastically they were unsurpassed and thus won the cup for that distinction for the second time in the two years' existence of the reward.

The attainments of Beta Xi chapter in a small school reflect creditably upon both the school and the fraternity.

The chapter was led this year by the following officers:

Zeta Chi

The origin of Zeta Chi, not unlike its body of tradition, is strictly William Jewell in nature. In the autumn of 1915 a group of boys living on Third West, New Ely Dormitory, conceived the idea of establishing a social fraternity, and the plans for the organization were immediately laid. Regular meetings were held and men were pledged and initiated, but for two years the chapter remained sub rosa, with headquarters in the dormitory.

On April 20, 1917, Zeta Chi became officially Zeta Chi Fraternity, having gained the recognition and official approval of the faculty, and it was at this time that it first became known as a fraternity to the college as a whole.

The local fraternity on the hill, Zeta Chi has had its ups and downs, but has always pulled through, and the school year of 1940 has witnessed many advances in size, spirit, and participation in school activities. No little credit is due the five men on the faculty who are connected with the chapter for the successful year the organization has enjoyed.

Zeta Chi, this year, has been represented in many phases of school life and activities of the campus. She placed a touch-football team and a baseball team on the field to compete with other teams, she entered a skit in the Tatler Revue, she placed a float in the Home-coming parade, and she was instrumental in introducing the Barber Shop Quartet to the college. Several radio parties were given during the course of the year, and a steak fry which was held in the spring term. Several of the Zeta Chi boys served as student assistants during the year, and many held positions of trust in the various organizations of the hill. Wiley Thorne was president of the student body. Made up of a group of boys with a variety of interests, Zeta Chi was represented in most of the activities of the campus.

Beta Sigma Omicron

Beta Sigma Omicron was founded at the University of Missouri, Columbia, Missouri, in 1888. Alpha Psi chapter was installed at William Jewell College in 1931, replacing the organization known as Iota Pi.

The sorority colors are ruby and pink and the flowers are the Richmond and Killarney roses.

This has been a profitable year for Alpha Psi. Her members have distinguished themselves in all fields of enterprise.

In the fall Beta Sigs gave an informal "sweater and swing" dance. This dance, appropriately for the season, used the theme of football. The modern idea dominated the decorations for the winter formal, and Alpha Psi finished the year's activities with her annual spring formal.

The chapter has entertained with various luncheons and dinners, such as the annual Home-coming luncheon, Mother's Day luncheon, and the formal Founder's Day Dinner.

In the fall Alpha Psi initiated Mrs. Alma Ward Schwamb of New York City. Mrs. Schwamb is an outstanding alumna of William Jewell College and while she was in school, she was a member of Iota Pi, the local sorority which later became Alpha Psi of Beta Sigma Omicron.

Some other famous Beta Sigs are Lois Wilson, actress; Mrs. Lewelyn, sister of Hubert Eaton of Forest Lawn Memorial-Park; and Mrs. Clarence Cannon, wife of the congressman.

TNT

In the year 1922 a few girls at William Jewell College organized a local sorority—TNT. Since that time girls of the lavender and purple have continued to be outstanding in all phases of college life.

Usually considered as being primarily a social organization, TNT is proud of the fact that this year she ranked second and first for the fall and winter terms, respectively, among the social organizations on the hill in scholastic standing.

As has been the custom in the past years, TNT had a pledge dance, a winter formal, a spring formal, and a farewell dinner-dance in addition to a Mother's Day Luncheon, our biennial tea for the wives of the faculty members, and picnics and informal gatherings for the chapter members. Continuing last year's precedent TNT also gave a "vice versa" radio party.

The success of the chapter is due in part to the interest and cooperation of Mrs. John F. Davis, sponsor, of the Mother's Club under Mrs. C. J. Prince, and of the Alumnae Club with Sue Cowan as president.

The First Lady of the Campus

Possessing in abundance every quality of character and leadership, lacking no virtue of feminine charm and grace, accepting with natural modesty the multitude of honors heaped at her feet, Miss Madeline Parrott was chosen by her fellow-students as the First Lady of the campus for 1940. Universally recognized as one of Jewell's most outstanding daughters, Madeline is the first in the history of the College to hold this title.

General Alexander

Doniphan of the Year

Typifying in character and spirit the stalwart figure of this famed hero looming high on the horizon of Jewell history, Mr. Gene Hollmann was selected by the student body as the 1940 counterpart in integrity, in modesty, in tolerance, in the faculty of eloquent expression, of Alexander Doniphan, soldier, lawyer, statesman. Constantly lauded for his exceptional talents and achievements, Gene has endeared himself to his fellows by his absolute sincerity.

But Remember

- Sept. 7—School starts with a bang. It couldn't be a bang 'cause only freshmen have arrived.
- Sept. 8—Fraternity Rush Week starts. The Greeks came down the home stretch fiercely battling it out and not wanting (according to them) the guys they didn't get and perfectly happy about the whole thing.
- Sept. 18—Sororities with their own kittenish ways had their own little rush week and pledged just gobs of girls (twenty). Both sororities will be friendly in a week.
- Oct 11—Grosch condemns new school song written by Wilkes and Bush; consequently it goes over O. K.
- Nov. 23— Presidential Turkey Day.
- Dec. 25— Santa's annual visit . . . he brought nice shiny red apples.
- Jan. 22—The one nationally famous woman-hater's club starts out.
- Jan. 23—Snowballing is the fad among Jewell adolescents.
- Feb. 12—Dr. Herget devotes a chapel to showing how we can have a good time sitting in a girl's parlor and spending no money (as if we didn't know how!)
- March 18— Final exams a great success. Taken like Grant took his tomb.
- April 10— Women debaters return. Dick is happy. Distinguished visitor P. C. H.
- May 6—Work Day. Students faced with working or freezing. Gene Moore froze.
- May 7—Spring is officially here—Parks has a new girl.
- May 10—Political battlefield. No casualties.
- May 28—"Kiss the boys goodbye."

OUR FRIENDS

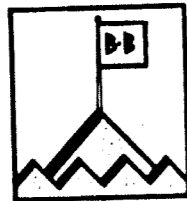

One of these days

(sooner than you think) you'll be buying printing plates.

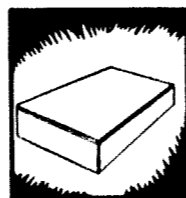

Against that day, fix in your mind the name of BURGER-BAIRD. It will then be a more important fact to you than dates (historical — not the other kind) or irregular verbs or formulae.

For while there are other good engravers, there is only one Burger-Baird.

Good plates? Yes, the best, and pride in their craftsmanship. Prompt with them, too.

But the main thing that keeps Burger-Baird the best known name among middle-west engravers seems to be—well, call it "savvy." It means interest and understanding, not merely for the engravings, but for your larger objectives as well.

People seem to like that, and so, no doubt, will you. Keep us in mind, won't you?

Statistics Show . . .

That Life Insurance is the item of greatest value in the list of assets of estates in the aggregate that are filed for probate.

Young people are wise if they make this their first investment.

It is the item of surest value in building an estate.

It is cash on the barrel head at maturity, and its value increases from year to year through the inevitable law of compound interest.

Optional settlement clauses make our policies adjustable to changing needs.

"Eastern" moves - - literally and figuratively!

A beautiful 5 1-2-acre campus with buildings ideally equipped for the training of earnest, consecrated youth are now a reality near the center of a great historic city with large libraries, cultural advantages unnumbered, and unusual opportunities for soul-winning.

Eastern challenges men who are truly called of God to the ministry—men who are not afraid of hard work and who are willing to pay the price of a thorough preparation. Your best is none too good to offer Him.

A Faculty of 28 Professors and Instructors, loyal to Christ and to the Bible, seek to make the courses in Theology, Pre-Theology, Christian Education and Sacred Music, supreme in their value to each student. They are united in keeping EASTERN an outstanding, conservative Baptist school of highest standards.

Individual Initiative

IT HAS given plastic youth encouragement in its beginning fight for opportunity and advancement.
IT HAS started and built all the thriving organizations in the industrial world today.
IT HAS made possible the unparalleled services which are yours.
IT HAS put the United States in the leading role of safe-guarding the liberty of the individual.

THIS WHOLESOME INITIATIVE, one of the most impelling forces of humanity since the world began—if hampered, impeded, and smothered by a government with dynastic or even parental inclinations, will be impaired, the sad result being the inevitable decline of business itself and the regimentation of youth.

The torch of responsibility for maintaining this INITIATIVE, this driving force is yours and ours to preserve for future generations.

To itself . . .

The College Annual

Distilled panorama—
Transmuting by the alchemy
Of its pages
The cross of the college year
Into an enduring golden pageant.

Permanent soliloquy
Of a thousand episodes—
Timeless monologue
Of a hundred happy tongues --
History casting its shadow.
Prophecy looking backward—
Avatar of all college adventures.
The ghosts of a myriad
Hopes, fears, loves, hates,
Thrills, failures, companionships
Glide between its lines,
Huddle beneath its pictures.

Forgotten will be the
Bleak pages of cold books,
The dull drone of pedantic professors—
But this the cup from which
To sup perennially
College joy and sorrow.

The harp whose mystic wires of memory
From gridiron, classroom, and dormitory
To office, farm, and hearthstone
Become the orchestra of dreams.
A rose-lipped shell murmuring
The fierce unrest that seethes
Within every college boy and girl.
Youth's burial-ground with its
Tombstones marking the places
Where freedom was acquired.
A mysterious phonograph preserving
The trumpet-tongued yells of husky throats
And the fraternity sweetheart songs.

This epitome, this symbol—
The quintessence, the substance—
This summation of a year in college
Without which
What is and will be precious
Slips through careless fingers.

Someday an editor with Vision and soul enough
Will dedicate
The college annual to itself.
